God speaks to us in an analogous way that we communicate with our bodies. For the Christian, developing this understanding and ability to listen is crucial. I have never read a better book on communicating with God than Willard's Hearing God. I highly recommend it to anyone who wrestles with discerning the voice of God.

A conversational relationship with God means that we cultivate a heart that is able to hear God speak. We are able to know and sense God's presence with us. We are aware of God's presence in our circumstances, we are able to hear the Still Small Voice of the Spirit, and we are able to read the Bible in such a way that it shapes the manner in which we live.
