At the London Evangelists' Conference yesterday, Professor John Lennox offered some quick responses to some common claims from atheists. 1) You don't believe in Zeus, Thor and all the other gods. I just go one god more than you, and reject the Christian God. The problem with this idea is that 'gods' such as Zeus and Thor are not comparable with the biblical understanding of God.

~~Fen quick responses to atheist claims—Christian Today~~

It's simply a disbelief that gods exist, period. Most atheists have reached their disbelief through rational thought and an examination of evidence - or rather, lack of evidence - and the vast majority of us don't proselytise our disbelief in the way that theists do.
